 - (c) where section 62(1)(d) applies, confirmation of the circumstances giving rise to the application being brought by the applicant concerned. 35
- (2) Where the independent person, having had regard to the application and such information, if any, as he or she has obtained under this section, is not satisfied that the applicant is a person who may make the application in accordance with section 62(1), the independent person shall not consider the application further and shall notify in writing—

- (a) the applicant, informing him or her of the decision and the reasons for that decision, and that he or she may make a request in writing to the Minister, within 28 days of the date of the notification, to seek a review of the decision under section 68, and 5

Consideration by independent person of application

65. (1) An independent person may, for the purposes of considering an application, request in writing a public body to furnish him or her with copies of any records that the public body may hold or any transferred records that the public body may formerly have held, which are, or may be, relevant to the consideration of the application, including any record relating to or referencing the arrest, questioning, caution, charge, prosecution, making of an order under section 1(1) or (2) of the Act of 1907, conviction, sentencing, imprisonment or probation supervision of any person in connection with the application concerned. 15 20

 - (c) consider whether the relevant conviction or other determination satisfies the criteria under section 61 for a certificate of disregard.
- (4) An independent person may consult with any person whom the independent person reasonably considers may be appropriate by reason of that other person's experience, qualifications, specialist knowledge or knowledge of the matters being considered by the independent person. 40

- (5) An independent person, in considering an application, shall consider whether the criteria in section 61 are satisfied and shall consider all other information in his or her possession pursuant to this section for those purposes.
- (6) Without prejudice to the generality of subsection (5), in a case of an application to which section 61(5) applies, the independent person shall consider— 5
 - (a) whether it is likely that the relevant person would not have been cautioned or prosecuted, as the case may be, in relation to the sexual activity concerned had that activity been heterosexual in nature, and
 - (b) in considering paragraph (a), whether a person, other than a person engaging in the sexual activity concerned, would have been able to observe the sexual activity without actively seeking out the said activity for the purpose of so observing. 10
- (7) An independent person shall, having considered the application concerned in accordance with this section, make a recommendation in writing (in this Part referred to as an “independent person’s recommendation”), providing reasons for that recommendation, to the Minister within 4 months of receipt of the application or such longer period as the Minister may allow, advising the Minister that the independent person— 15
 - (a) is satisfied that the applicable conviction or other determination should be disregarded and that he or she is recommending that a certificate of disregard be issued, or 20

 - (b) if not satisfied that the applicable conviction or other determination should be disregarded, notify, in writing, the applicant— 35

 - (b) each public body notified under paragraph (a) shall, as soon as practicable, annotate any such record (including any transferred record) in order to record the disregard of the applicable conviction or other determination in such manner as does not in any way amend or otherwise alter the record itself but which ensures that, if such record is subsequently consulted or processed for any purpose, the fact of such disregard is clearly and immediately visible. 10

- (2) Where the Minister receives a request for a review under subsection (1) he or she shall, unless he or she reasonably considers the request to be frivolous, vexatious or otherwise manifestly unfounded, appoint a person, other than the independent person who made the decision under section 64(2) or the recommendation under section 65, as the case may be, as an independent reviewer for the purposes of carrying out a review. 10
- (3) The Minister shall, upon appointing an independent reviewer, provide him or her with a copy of the application, any records or information obtained by the independent person under section 64 or 65, as the case may be, and where applicable, the independent person's recommendation under section 65. 15

69. Where, having been notified of the issuance of a certificate of disregard in respect of a relevant person under section 66(3)(a), a public body subsequently becomes aware of information which might reasonably be grounds for a belief that the application upon 10 which the certificate of disregard was granted included, or was supported by, false or misleading information or documentation, the public body shall, as soon as practicable, bring such information to the attention of the Minister.

Revocation of certificate of disregard

70. (1) Where, subsequent to the issuance of a certificate of disregard in respect of a relevant 15
person, the Minister—
- (a) having received information, under section 69 or otherwise, which causes him or her to reasonably believe—
 - (i) that an application upon which the certificate of disregard was granted included, or was supported by, false or misleading information or 20 documentation, and
 - (ii) that, in all the circumstances, it is likely that the independent person would not have recommended that a certificate of disregard be issued in respect of the relevant conviction or other determination concerned had the application not included, or had it not been supported by, such false or misleading 25 information or documentation,
- and
- (b) having consulted with such persons as he or she reasonably considers may be appropriate by reason of that other person's experience, qualifications, specialist knowledge or knowledge of the matters concerned, 30

 - (b) may be accompanied by such supporting documentation as the applicant considers appropriate. 5
- (4) Where the Minister receives a request for a review of a proposed revocation under subsection (3), he or she shall, subject to subsection (5), unless he or she reasonably considers the request to be frivolous, vexatious or otherwise manifestly unfounded, appoint a person (in this Part referred to as an “independent assessor”), other than the independent person who considered the application under section 64 or 65 or, where applicable, the independent reviewer who carried out a review under section 68, to carry out such review of the proposed revocation. 10

- (8) An independent assessor may consult with any person whom the independent assessor reasonably considers may be appropriate by reason of that other person’s experience, qualifications, specialist knowledge or knowledge of the matters being considered by the independent assessor.
- (9) An independent assessor shall, within 14 days of his or her appointment or such longer period as the Minister may allow, review the documentation provided under subsection (6) and any information obtained under this section, and shall consider whether he or she is satisfied— 30
- (a) that the application included, or was supported by, false or misleading information or documentation, and 35
 - (b) that, in all the circumstances, it is likely that the independent person would not have recommended that a certificate of disregard be issued in respect of the relevant conviction or other determination concerned had the application not included, or had it not been supported by, such false or misleading information or documentation. 40
- (10) Where an independent assessor has completed his or her assessment under subsection (9), he or she shall furnish the Minister with a recommendation in writing

(in this Part referred to as an “independent assessor’s recommendation”) recommending—

- (a) where the independent assessor is not satisfied of the matters specified in paragraphs (a) and (b) of subsection (9), that the certificate of disregard should not be revoked, giving reasons for the recommendation, or 5

- (11) The Minister may request in writing a person appointed under subsection (4) to provide the Minister with such information, and within such period as the Minister may specify in the request, in relation to the carrying out by the person of his or her functions under this Part and, where the Minister makes such a request, the person shall comply with that request. 10
- (12) For the purposes of this section and section 71, where the relevant person is alive but is not the applicant, “applicant” shall be construed as a reference to both the applicant and the relevant person. 15

- 71. (1) Where the Minister receives an independent assessor’s recommendation he or she shall consider the recommendation concerned and shall—
- (a) if satisfied that the certificate of disregard should be revoked, issue to the applicant a notice revoking the certificate (in this Part referred to as a “notice of revocation”) and any such notice shall be accompanied by reasons in writing for the decision to revoke the certificate of disregard concerned, or 20
 - (b) if not satisfied that the certificate of disregard should be revoked, notify, in writing, the applicant of his or her decision not to revoke the certificate of disregard concerned. 25
- (2) Where, in relation to a notification made under section 70(1), the Minister has not received a request in accordance with section 70(3), or where he or she has received such a request but reasonably considers it to be frivolous, vexatious or otherwise manifestly unfounded, the Minister shall issue to the applicant a notice of revocation and any such notice shall be accompanied by reasons in writing for the decision to revoke the certificate of disregard concerned. 30
- (3) Where the Minister issues a notice of revocation—
- (a) he or she shall, as soon as practicable, notify, or cause to be notified, each public body that holds or may hold (or which may have transferred to the National Archives) a record relating to the previously disregarded conviction or other determination or any circumstances ancillary thereto, and 35
 - (b) each public body notified under paragraph (a) shall, as soon as practicable, annotate any such record in order to reflect the revocation of the disregard in such manner as ensures that, where any such record (including any transferred record) is processed for any purpose, the fact of such revocation is clearly and immediately visible. 40

Public awareness of Part

- (a) any information relating to any other offence committed, or alleged to have been committed, by the relevant person unless—

- (ii) the relevant person is deceased, 30
- and
- (b) in such manner as to avoid hindering a consideration of whether the applicable conviction or other determination should be the subject of a certificate of disregard, any information which may identify, or could be used to identify, a living person other than the relevant person in connection with the applicable activity or any other offence or alleged offence. 35

- (a) where access to that data is necessary in order to respond to a specific and actual threat related to a terrorist offence or serious crime, and
 - (b) the PIU has determined, in accordance with section 99(8), there is an objective link, whether of a direct or an indirect nature, between the offence or crime referred to in paragraph (a) and the carriage of passengers by air. 15
- (10) An air carrier shall use its best endeavours to ensure that any data collected by it that is not PNR data is not transferred to the PIU.
- (11) An air carrier that fails to comply with a requirement under this section, other than the requirement under subsection (10), shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable— 20
- (a) on summary conviction, to a class A fine, or

- (14) Where an offence under subsection (11) is committed by a body corporate and is proved to have been so committed with the consent or connivance of any person, being a director, manager, secretary or other officer of the body corporate, or a person who was purporting to act in any such capacity, that person shall, as well as the body corporate, be guilty of an offence and shall be liable to be proceeded against and punished as if he or she were guilty of the first-mentioned offence. 30
- (15) Where the affairs of a body corporate are managed by its members, subsection (14) applies in relation to the acts and defaults of a member in connection with his or her functions of management as if he or she were a director or manager of the body corporate. 35

Assessment of passengers by PIU

- 96. (1) The PIU shall carry out an assessment of PNR data in respect of passengers on—
- (a) an extra-EU flight, or 40

- (b) a designated intra-EU flight, prior to their scheduled arrival in, or departure from, the State for the purpose of identifying persons who require further examination by a competent authority or a competent authority in another Member State and, where relevant, by Europol, to determine whether such persons may be, or may have been, involved in a terrorist offence or serious crime, in respect of which there is an objective link, whether of a direct or an indirect nature, with the carriage of passengers by air. 5
- (2) Subject to subsection (3), the PIU may determine criteria (in this section referred to as “pre-determined criteria”) to be used in processing PNR data for the purpose of conducting an assessment under subsection (1) and, where such criteria are determined, they shall— 10
 - (a) be targeted, proportionate and specific in nature,
 - (b) be regularly reviewed in consultation with the competent authorities, and
 - (c) not, in any circumstance, be based on the race, ethnic origin, political opinions, religious or philosophical beliefs, trade union membership, health, sexual life or sexual orientation of a person. 15
- (3) Notwithstanding the coming into operation of section 81, where immediately before the coming into operation of that section, pre-determined criteria referred to in Regulation 5 of the Regulations of 2018 are in use in conducting assessments under that Regulation, those criteria shall be considered to be pre-determined criteria for the purposes of this section until new criteria are established under subsection (5). 20
- (4) When carrying out an assessment under subsection (1), the PIU may—
 - (a) compare PNR data against databases relevant for the purpose referred to in that subsection, only where such databases are databases containing data on persons or objects sought or under alert, in accordance with European Union, international and national law and the laws of the State applicable to such databases, or 25
 - (b) process PNR data against pre-determined criteria.
- (5) The PIU may establish pre-determined criteria and may, from time to time, update those criteria. 30

Transfer of PNR data to another Member State and to competent authority

97. (1) Where the PIU carries out an assessment under section 96(1) and identifies a person who requires further examination by a competent authority in another Member State, the PIU shall, subject to subsection (4), transfer the PNR data relating to that person and, where applicable, the result of the processing of such data by it, to the PIU of the Member State concerned for onward transfer to the competent authority in the Member State concerned. 35
- (2) Where the PIU carries out an assessment under section 96(1) and identifies a person who requires further examination by a competent authority, the PIU shall, subject to subsection (4), transfer the PNR data relating to that person and, where applicable, the result of the processing of such data by it, to the competent authority concerned. 40

- (3) Where the PIU of another Member State transfers PNR data, or the result of the processing of such data, or both, to the PIU for onward transfer by the PIU to a competent authority, the PIU shall, subject to subsection (4), transfer the data and, where applicable, the result of the processing of such data, to the competent authority that is to carry out further examination of the data. 5
- (4) Where a person referred to in subsection (1) or (2) has been identified by the automated processing of PNR data, the PIU shall only transfer the PNR data relating to that person, in accordance with those subsections, where the PIU has carried out a review of the identification by non-automated means and has verified the identification of the person concerned. 10

Request by competent authority for PNR data

98. (1) A competent authority is entitled—

- (a) to request, under subsection (2), and receive, under section 97(2), PNR data, and the result of the processing of such data by the PIU, from the PIU, and
- (b) to request, under section 100(3), PNR data, and the result of the processing of such data by the PIU of another Member State, from that PIU, 15
- in order to examine that data and take appropriate action for the purpose of preventing, detecting, investigating and prosecuting a terrorist offence or serious crime.
- (2) Where a request is received by the PIU from a competent authority for PNR data, or the result of the processing of such data by the PIU, or both, the PIU shall, subject to section 103, make an application to the Independent Authority for approval to transfer the data requested to the competent authority concerned where, on the basis of the request— 20
- (a) the PIU considers there are reasonable grounds for believing that— 25
- (i) the transfer of the data requested is necessary for the purpose of preventing, detecting, investigating and prosecuting a terrorist offence or serious crime, and
- (ii) there is an objective link, whether of a direct or an indirect nature, between the offence or crime and the carriage of passengers by air, 30
- and
- (b) the PIU—
- (i) where the request relates to a request for PNR data relating to a serious crime, has a reasonable suspicion that a person, to whom the PNR data, the subject of the request, relates, is involved in any way with the crime, or 35
- (ii) where the request relates to a request for PNR data relating to a terrorist offence, infers that the PNR data, the subject of the request, could contribute effectively to the combatting of the offence.
- (3) An application under subsection (2) shall be in writing, submitted by electronic means, and shall contain a copy of the request referred to in that subsection. 40

- (4) Following receipt of an application under subsection (2), the Independent Authority shall review the application and, as soon as practicable and in any event not later than 96 hours after receiving the application, shall—

 - (b) notify the PIU of the decision of the Independent Authority and the reasons for that decision.
- (5) Where, under subsection (4), the Independent Authority approves the transfer of the data requested, the PIU shall, as soon as practicable after receipt of the notification under paragraph (b) of that subsection, transfer the data to the competent authority concerned. 10
- (6) Subject to subsection (7), PNR data, and the result of the processing of such data by the PIU, transferred to a competent authority under subsection (5), may be processed by the competent authority only for the purpose of preventing, detecting, investigating and prosecuting a terrorist offence or serious crime. 15
- (7) Where evidence of an offence, other than the one referred to in subsection (6), is detected during the processing of data referred to in that subsection, that subsection shall not affect law enforcement or judicial powers to process that data for purposes relating to that other offence.
- (8) A competent authority shall not take any decision that produces an adverse legal effect on a person or significantly affects the person— 20
 - (a) only by reason of the automated processing of PNR data, or
 - (b) on the basis of the race or ethnic origin, political opinions, religion or philosophical beliefs, trade union membership, health, sexual life or sexual orientation of the person. 25

Request from other Member State for PNR data

 - (ii) there is an objective link, whether of a direct or an indirect nature, between the offence or crime and the carriage of passengers by air, and
 - (b) the PIU— 35

- (6) An application under subsection (5) shall be in writing, submitted by electronic means, and shall contain a copy of the request referred to in that subsection.
- (7) Subsections (3) and (4) shall apply to an application under subsection (5) as they apply to an application under subsection (1), subject to the modification that a reference in subsections (3) and (4) to subsection (1) shall be construed as a reference to subsection (5). 5

- 100. (1) Subject to subsection (5), the PIU may make a request for PNR data, or the result of the processing of such data by the PIU of another Member State, or both, to that PIU where the PIU considers—

- (4) In exceptional circumstances, the PIU may request the PIU of another Member State to request an air carrier to transfer PNR data to the PIU of that Member State at a time other than the time the air carrier normally transfers PNR data to the PIU of the other Member State concerned, and transmit the data to the PIU, where the PIU considers—
- (a) there are reasonable grounds for believing that—
 - (i) the transfer of the data to the PIU is necessary for the purpose of responding to a specific and actual threat related to a terrorist offence or serious crime, and

Request by Europol to PIU for PNR data

- 101. (1) Where a request for PNR data, or the result of the processing of such data by the PIU, or both, is received by the PIU from Europol, having been submitted by Europol to the PIU in accordance with Article 10, the PIU shall, subject to section 103, make an application to the Independent Authority for approval to transfer the data to Europol where, on the basis of the request— 5

 - (ii) there is an objective link, whether of a direct or an indirect nature, between the offence or crime and the carriage of passengers by air, and
 - (b) the PIU—

- 102. (1) Where a request is received by the PIU from a competent authority of a third country for PNR data, or the result of the processing of such data by the PIU, or both, the PIU may, subject to section 103, make an application to the Independent Authority for approval to transfer the data to the competent authority of the third country concerned, where, on the basis of the request— 40

- (a) the PIU considers there are reasonable grounds for believing that—
 - (i) the transfer of the data requested is necessary for the purpose of preventing, detecting, investigating and prosecuting a terrorist offence or serious crime in a Member State or the third country making the request, and
 - (ii) there is an objective link, whether of a direct or an indirect nature, between the offence or crime and the carriage of passengers by air, 5
- (b) the PIU is satisfied that the circumstances referred to in subsection (2) apply, and
- (c) the PIU—
 - (i) where the request relates to a request for PNR data relating to a serious crime, has a reasonable suspicion that a person, to whom the PNR data, the subject of the request, relates, is involved in any way with the crime, or 10
 - (ii) where the request relates to a request for PNR data relating to a terrorist offence, infers that the PNR data, the subject of the request, could contribute effectively to the combatting of the offence.
- (2) The circumstances referred to in subsection (1) are that— 15
 - (a) the transfer is consistent with the law of the State in relation to data protection,
 - (b) subject to subsection (6), where the data that are sought in the request under subsection (1) were obtained by the PIU from the PIU of another Member State, the other Member State has given its prior consent to the transfer, and
 - (c) the third country concerned agrees that it will only transfer the PNR data that is the subject of the request to another third country where— 20
 - (i) such transfer is strictly necessary for the purpose of the prevention, detection, investigation and prosecution of a terrorist offence or serious crime in a Member State or the third country making the request, in respect of which offence or crime there is an objective link, whether of a direct or an indirect nature, with the carriage of passengers by air, and 25
 - (ii) having received the express written authorisation of the Director.
- (3) An application under subsection (1) shall be in writing, submitted by electronic means, and shall contain a copy of the request referred to in that subsection.
- (4) Following receipt of an application under subsection (1), the Independent Authority shall review the application and, as soon as practicable and in any event not later than 96 hours after receiving the application, shall— 30

- (6) For the purposes of subsection (2)(b), in exceptional circumstances, the PIU may, where PNR data is obtained by it from another Member State, permit the transfer of that data to a competent authority of a third country without the prior consent of the other Member State from which the PNR data were obtained, only if—
- (a) the transfer is essential in order to respond to a specific and actual threat related to a terrorist offence or serious crime in a Member State or third country, and
 - (b) the prior consent of the Member State concerned cannot be obtained in good time.
- (7) Where subsection (6) applies in respect of a transfer of data under subsection (5), the PIU shall, without delay, notify the PIU of the Member State from which the PNR data were originally obtained and make a record of the notification.
- (8) Where the PIU is notified by a PIU of another Member State that there has been a transfer, by that PIU, to a third country of PNR data—
- (a) that was originally obtained from the PIU, and
 - (b) without the prior consent of the PIU,
- the PIU shall make a record of the notification and shall notify the data protection officer for the purposes of section 86(5).
- (9) PNR data shall be transferred under this section by the PIU to the competent authority of a third country only in accordance with the provisions of this Part and upon ascertaining that the use the recipients intend to make of the PNR data is consistent with the conditions and safeguards contained in this Part.
- (10) In this section—
- “serious crime” means—
- (a) where it relates to an offence in a Member State, an offence referred to in paragraph (b) of the definition of “serious crime”, and

Disclosure of PNR data in case of duly justified urgency

103. (1) Where—

- (a) but for this section, the PIU would, in respect of a request under section 98(2), 99(1), 99(5), 99(8), 101(1) or 102(1), otherwise be satisfied to bring an application to the Independent Authority under the subsection concerned for approval to transfer data, and

- (b) where the circumstances specified in subsection (2) apply in respect of the request,
- the Director shall authorise the transfer of the data, or the result of the processing of such data, or both, which is the subject of that request, in accordance with this section. 5
- (2) The circumstances referred to in subsection (1) are that the Director is satisfied, on the basis of the request, that it is likely that, before approval for the transfer of the data concerned could be obtained from the Independent Authority under the subsection concerned, the prevention, detection, investigation and prosecution of a terrorist offence or serious crime, to which the request relates, would be impeded. 10
- (3) Where the Director authorises the transfer of PNR data under subsection (1), he or she shall, as soon as practicable, and in any event not later than 24 hours after he or she issues the authorisation, apply to the Independent Authority for review of the authorisation.
- (4) An application under subsection (3) shall— 15
- (a) be made in writing, and
- (b) specify the grounds on which the authorisation under subsection (1) was issued.
- (5) Following receipt of an application under subsection (3), the Independent Authority, as soon as practicable, and in any event not later than 72 hours after receiving the application shall— 20

- (c) notify the PIU of its decision and the reasons for that decision.
- (6) Where the Independent Authority revokes an authorisation under subsection (5), the notice referred to in paragraph (c) of that subsection shall direct the Director to, without delay, notify the person specified in subsection (7) that—
- (a) the data transferred pursuant to the authorisation should be deleted, and 30
- (b) that the use or further use of that data by the person is prohibited.
- (7) The person referred to in subsection (6) is—
- (a) in the case of a transfer of data to a competent authority pursuant to a request under section 98(2), the competent authority concerned,
- (b) in the case of a transfer of data to the PIU of another Member State pursuant to a request under section 99(1) or (8), or a competent authority of another Member State pursuant to a request under section 99(5), the PIU of the Member State or competent authority of the Member State concerned, 35
- (c) in the case of a transfer of data to Europol pursuant to a request under section 101(1), Europol, and 40
